

Nottingham Bach Choir • Musical Director Paul Hale • Registered Charity No. 508139

Liz Chant Bursary 2019 application form

We welcome applications from all irrespective of gender, marital or partnership status, disability, race, religion, age or sexual orientation.

Name:

Personal postal address:

Age on 31st March 2019:

Email address:

Telephone number:

Name and address
of your current school,
college or university

Name of future
educational institution:

Names, addresses and email addresses of two referees, the position they hold and their relationship to you. One should be your singing teacher.

Have you attached copies of their references? Yes / No

Audition pieces – composer and title. A maximum of four pieces may be submitted with a maximum total length of 12 minutes.

If you are short-listed for the final you will be required to submit one copy of each of the pieces which you plan to sing which may or may not include pieces which you submit at this stage.

Have you attached your sound file? Yes / No

Accompanist requirements: if you are invited to audition (please tick one).... . . .

I will bring my own accompanist:

I would like an accompanist chosen by the panel to accompany me:

Please tell us about your studies, qualifications and experience which support your application as part of a personal statement of not more than one side of A4 and indicate how you will use the bursary to further your studies.

Signature:

Date:

Email your completed application form, personal statement, references and sound file by 12.00 on Thursday 31st January 2019 to nbcursaries@pford.co.uk.